Proclamations Policy

- Requests should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the due date.
- All requests should clearly include the name, address and telephone number of the person making the request, as well as a mailing address for the person(s) receiving the proclamation.
- Requests will include draft language specific to Washington State and background information.
- Each renewal request will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. (Proclamations will not contain language indicating it is a permanent//ongoing recognition.)
- We are unable to accommodate proclamations for out-of-state events or for-profit causes.
- National or International groups requesting proclamations must have an in-state sponsor.
